To Whom It May Concern,

I am grateful that I had the opportunity to coach/train Zachary Jefferson for the past four years. He's been a phenomenal player and a great leader for our team. Zach is a very respectful and coachable young man. He's able to take constructive criticism and apply feedback to practice/training sessions daily.

Zach's game speaks for itself. He's always in the gym and willing to put in extra work to perfect his craft. He's very athletic and can play multiple positions. He mostly ran the wing for us but he had no problem handling the point guard position if needed. His skillset is well balanced. He can dribble, rebound, pass, and score at all three levels. I believe he will be a great addition to any basketball program due to his great character off the court and his abilities on the court.

Thanks again,

Coach Bowden
